

CRANE OPERATOR – LEVEL 1

Ideally, a Crane Operator should be certified to level 1 and level 2 and regularly monitored and tested to ensure that the foundation knowledge is both up to date and current. There are 2 main stages to become an experienced tower crane operator.

 <h3>Areas Covered</h3>	 <h3>Who is it aimed at?</h3>
An introduction to the roles and responsibilities of a crane operator An introduction to the types of tower cranes that are available to use and the major differences between them in operation. Introducing the main laws that relate to crane operations in their area. Introduction to the main crane functions and controls including pre-use checks, essential safety devices and post use checks. An understanding of the slew brake and when it should be used and not used. Pre use and start up operator inspection and records to be made Techniques for smooth and safe operation including lifting wind, downwind, heights below 50m, 50-100m and 100m plus. Communication methods. Action in the event of an incident. Practical load lifting Theory examination Practical examination	Level 1 is aimed at uncertified or inexperienced operators and provides the following essential skills: After Stage 1 training we recommend at least 1 year of regular operation, or 1,600 hours operating the crane and completing lifts of various types of load and various complexity.
	Learners will receive a digital certificate upon completion certificate, which is downloadable upon successfully finishing the course. Course standard: ISO/IEC/17024:2012
	There are two options full course instructor led or through remote session for the theory element of the training, however for practical assessments and testing must be carried out with instructor led.

Why Choose Ubique Safety Consultancy?

High standards of training allowing the attendees to understand and learn from qualified instructors. There are learning tools and techniques that suit all students from Instructor LED, blended and distance learning.

Key Details

- Prerequisites: No prior Knowledge Needed
- Assessment: Multiple Choice Questions and practical exam
- LMS: No
- Compatibility: N/A

